

The Complete Online Management Service for Registrars

Product sheet

Our fully comprehensive system is designed specifically to handle the complexities of a registrar's department. It provides seamless management of all activities, from public access to full back-office management of resources and calendars. You'll find it simple to use, whether you work for the department or contact centre, are a trusted third party such as a funeral director, or a member of the public.

With the Zipporah system, registrars' teams can successfully manage appointments for

- Birth registration or re-registration
- Marriage or civil partnership notification
- Death registration
- Nationality checking service
- Citizenship ceremony attendance
- Parental consent meetings
- Stillbirth and neonatal registration

Our system gives you

- Reduced administration, letting you focus more on key business areas

- Only valid appointments are booked because the system incorporates an 'intelligent' workflow to guide and direct users
- Registrars can limit incoming calls to just those needing professional advice, freeing up more time to deal with other tasks

- Comprehensive reporting

- Our unique suite of documentation enables you to provide reports quickly and easily, demonstrating you are meeting required targets

- Easy-access diary management

- Our comprehensive online diary enables users to share immediate and up-to-date information
- You can add your own notes, ensuring effective information flow
- In-built resource and restriction controls mean that system management remains centrally maintained

- Best value and reduced costs

- Our system has a unique, extensive, in-built functionality - not found in other modules - making it the best value, most cost-effective option available.
- By making you more efficient, we save you money!

We work closely with you, discussing your own individual requirements, so you get exactly the system you need. We provide support during your system development and installation. And once everything is in place, we also offer a full help-desk service to deal with any issues which may arise.

Our level of service is unmatched. Our staff have direct experience of working in local authorities, and have extensive knowledge of the complexity of the registrar's role.

For a no obligation, free demonstration, call us now on 029 2064 7048

Or email us at info@zipporah.co.uk or visit our website www.zipporah.co.uk